IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION FIVE

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

E.C.,

Defendant and Appellant.

B272026

(Los Angeles County
Super. Ct. No. NJ28537)

APPEAL from a judgment of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, Arthur M. Lew and John C. Lawson II, Judges. Affirmed.

Elana Goldstein, under appointment by the Court of Appeal, for Defendant and Appellant.

No appearance for Plaintiff and Respondent.

In March 2016, the District Attorney in Los Angeles filed a Welfare and Institutions Code section 602 petition charging defendant and appellant E.C. (Minor) with carrying an unregistered loaded handgun in public, in violation of Penal Code section 25850(a) (count 1); possessing a concealable firearm as a minor, in violation of Penal Code section 29610 (count 2); and carrying a concealed firearm in violation of Penal Code section 25400(a)(2) (count 3). The petition further alleged Minor was not in lawful possession of the firearm and is within a class of persons prohibited from possessing or acquiring a firearm.

Testimony at a contested adjudication hearing on the charged offenses established that a peace officer apprehended Minor at a metro train station after he admitted he had not paid for a ticket. Minor gave the officer permission to search his backpack, in which the officer found a loaded gun that was not registered to Minor.

The juvenile court found all counts of the petition true. The judge at the adjudication hearing stated that all three offenses were felonies “at this time,” but directed the minute order for the hearing to “reflect that the disposition hearing officer may make whatever determination he likes as to whether they are felonies or misdemeanors.” At the disposition hearing before a different judge, the court committed Minor to juvenile camp for five to seven months. The court additionally advised Minor that his maximum confinement time was eight years. The court stayed sentence on counts 2 and 3 pursuant to Penal Code section 654.

Minor thereafter filed a notice of appeal as to both the adjudication and disposition. This court appointed counsel to represent Minor, and after examining the record, counsel filed an opening brief raising no issues. On August 22, 2016, this court advised Minor he had 30 days to personally submit any contentions or issues he wished us to consider. We received no response.

We have examined the record provided to us, and we are satisfied Minor's attorney on appeal has complied with the responsibilities of counsel and no arguable issue exists. (Smith v. Robbins (2000) 528 U.S. 259, 278-82; People v. Kelly (2006) 40 Cal.4th 106, 122-24; People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 441.)

DISPOSITION

The judgment is affirmed.
