IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT
DIVISION SIX

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

SANDRA ANN NAMCHEK,

Defendant and Appellant.

2d Crim. No. B245546
(Super. Ct. No. 2011032981)
(Ventura County)

Sandra Ann Namchek appeals the judgment entered after she pled guilty to possessing methamphetamine (Health & Saf. Code, § 11377, subd. (a)). The trial court placed her on drug treatment probation pursuant to Penal Code section 1210.1. Appellant was also found in violation of her probation in another case, and probation was revoked and reinstated.

Because appellant pled guilty prior to trial, the relevant facts are derived from the preliminary hearing transcript. A bag containing 0.3 grams of methamphetamine was found in appellant's pocket during a probation search. Officers also found a glass smoking pipe in a trash can in appellant's motel room.

We appointed counsel to represent appellant in this appeal. After counsel's examination of the record, she filed an opening brief in which no issues were raised.

On March 27, 2013, we advised appellant that she had 30 days within which to personally submit any contentions or issues she wished us to consider. No response has been received.<sup>1</sup>

We have reviewed the entire record and are satisfied that appellant's attorney has fully complied with her responsibilities and that no arguable issues exist. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 443; People v. Kelly (2006) 40 Cal.4th 106, 125–126.)

The judgment is affirmed.

NOT TO BE PUBLISHED.

<sup>1</sup> In conjunction with her notice of appeal, appellant filed a request for a certificate of probable cause alleging (1) she is innocent of the charge to which she pled guilty; (2) she was arrested and charged in violation of her civil and constitutional rights; (3) she has submitted "claims of liability" to several agencies that have never been addressed; and (4) she was "tricked" into pleading guilty and wished to withdraw her plea, file a motion to suppress, and have a jury trial. Although the court granted a certificate of probable cause, none of appellant's allegations are factually or legally supported by the record.
