IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT
DIVISION SIX

THE PEOPLE,
Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

WESLEY KANE CAMPBELL,
Defendant and Appellant.

2d Crim. No. B269024
(Super. Ct. No. PA079432)
(Los Angeles County)

Wesley Kane Campbell appeals an October 6, 2015 order revoking and terminating probation, and sentencing him to six years state prison with 233 days presentence credit. (Pen. Code, § 1203.3.)¹

We appointed counsel to represent appellant in this appeal. After counsel's examination of the record, he filed an opening brief in which no issues were raised.

On June 28, 2016, we advised appellant that he had 30 days within which to personally submit any contentions or issues he wished us to consider. On July 18, 2016, appellant responded by letter, claiming that he did not violate probation and that a witness (Lamonica Garrett) lied about appellant leaving the court-ordered residential treatment program.

The record reflects that appellant pled no contest to making criminal threats (§ 422, subd. (a)) and admitted six prior prison term enhancements (§ 667.5, subd. (b)) on March 20, 2014. The trial court sentenced appellant to six years state prison, suspended execution of sentence, and granted appellant five years probation. Appellant was ordered, as a term of probation, to complete a 365 day residential treatment program.

Appellant's probation was revoked and reinstated four times for leaving a residential treatment program, testing positive for controlled substances, and failing to appear in court. On October 6, 2015, appellant's probation was revoked a fifth time after he left a residential treatment program. Lamonica Garrett, director of the Pasadena Recovery Center, testified that appellant left the program during the intake process. The trial court revoked and terminated probation, and ordered appellant to serve the six year prison sentence and pay various fines and fees.

We have reviewed the entire record and are satisfied that appellant's attorney has fully complied with his responsibilities and that no arguable issues exist. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 443; People v. Kelly (2006) 40 Cal.4th 106, 126.)

The judgment is affirmed.
