IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION SIX

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

EDWARD JAMES FERRERAS,

Defendant and Appellant.

2d Crim. No. B290377
(Super. Ct. No. 2017015433)
(Ventura County)

Edward James Ferreras appeals from an order sentencing him to an eight-month term consecutive to the sentence he was serving on another case arising out of Los Angeles County (Case No. SBA YA097127-01). We affirm.

Ferreras was arrested when a Ventura police officer approached him and saw a knife sheath in his waistband under his pants. He pled guilty to carrying a concealed dirk or dagger (Pen. Code, § 21310) and was sentenced to one-third the mid-term, consecutive to a sentence he was then serving on another case. The trial court struck two prior strike convictions after Ferreras admitted those convictions.

We appointed counsel to represent Ferreras in this appeal. After counsel examined the record, he filed an opening brief that raises no arguable issues. We advised Ferreras that he had 30 days within which to personally submit any contentions or issues he wished us to consider. Ferreras filed a supplemental brief in which he claims that the knife was not a dirk or dagger and that it was properly sheathed and not concealed. He also claims he should not have been housed in protective custody at the jail.

We have reviewed the entire record and are satisfied that Ferreras's attorney fully complied with his responsibilities and that no arguable issue exists. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 441.)

The judgment is affirmed.
