misdemeanor. The juvenile court ordered minor to be placed under terms and conditions of probation.

We appointed counsel to represent minor on appeal. After examining the record, counsel filed an “Opening Brief” containing an acknowledgment that she had been unable to find any arguable issues. On September 10, 2013, we advised minor that he had 30 days within which to personally submit any contentions or issues that he wished us to consider. No response has been received to date.

The record shows that on March 29, 2012, Dominick H. and minor attended high school together and were in the 10th grade. During their last class period, Dominick noticed minor staring at him. After class, Dominick entered a stairwell and saw that minor and minor’s friend Jeffrey were behind him. On the landing, minor pulled Dominick’s backpack, and Dominick was thrown to the ground. Minor began kicking and hitting Dominick in the head. Dominick did not fight back, but only put his hands in front of his face. When Dominick’s friend, Saion F., came upon them, minor and his friend ran off. Dominick and Saion then proceeded down the stairs and left the school. Dominick reported the incident to a teacher, and when Dominick’s mother saw a scratch on his face, she also reported the incident. Dominick did nothing to provoke minor to hit him.

Minor testified that Dominick punched him in the back of the head with a balled-up fist while minor was in the stairwell. Minor was with his friend Jeffrey, and they had both entered the stairwell on the third floor. Dominick was alone. Minor turned around and hit Dominick back, approximately five times. Prior to being hit, minor did not say or do anything to Dominick. Minor grabbed Dominick’s backpack only when Dominick tried to run away.

After examining the entire record, we are satisfied that minor’s attorney has fully complied with her responsibilities and that no arguable issues exist. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 441.)

The order under review is affirmed.
