IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION SIX

In re RAMONA G., a Person Coming
Under the Juvenile Court Law.

2d Juv. No. B240149
(Super. Ct. No. J067638)
(Ventura County)

VENTURA COUNTY HUMAN SERVICES AGENCY,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

ERNESTO G.,

Defendant and Appellant.

Ernesto G. (Father) appeals an order of the juvenile court continuing his daughter as a ward of the court (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 300, subd. (b)), continuing her removal from his custody and continuing her placement with the Human Services Agency.

We appointed counsel to represent Father on appeal. After examining the record and researching potential issues, counsel advised us she could not find any arguable issues to raise on Father's behalf. We grant Father's request for judicial notice of a copy of the minute order showing the court terminated dependency on June 21, 2012.

Father submitted a supplemental brief in propria persona in which he asserts that the trial court lacked jurisdiction, erred in sustaining the petition because "[t]here is no supporting evidence to sustain it," and that it deprived him Due Process and Equal Protection under the 14th Amendment of the federal Constitution. He requests that we direct the juvenile court to dismiss the instant petition or grant him an "evidentiary hearing to determine the true facts."

We have considered his brief and examined the record, and find that Father has not established good cause by showing that an arguable issue exists. We must dismiss the appeal. (In re Phoenix H. (2009) 47 Cal.4th 835, 845; People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 441.)

The appeal is dismissed.
