IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION SIX

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

ROBERT LURENCE,

Defendant and Appellant.

2d Crim. No. B259224
(Super. Ct. No. LA075966)
(Los Angeles County)

Robert Lurence appeals his conviction by jury for carrying a concealed firearm in a vehicle (Pen. Code, § 25400, subd. (a)(1))¹ and on his person (§ 25400, subd. (a)(2) with special findings that the firearm was loaded and not registered, and possession of alprazolam (Xanax) for sale (Health & Saf. Code, § 11357, subd. (b)(1)). The trial court suspended imposition of sentence, granted 36 months probation with 365 days county jail, and ordered appellant to pay a $300 restitution fine, a $300 probation revocation restitution fine, a $40 court operations assessment (§ 1465.8, subd. (a)(1)), a $30 criminal conviction assessment (Gov. Code, § 70373), and a $50 lab fee (Health & Saf. Code, § 11372.5).

¹ All statutory references are to the Penal Code unless otherwise stated.

We appointed counsel to represent appellant in this appeal. After counsel's examination of the record, he filed an opening brief raising no issues.

On April 8, 2015, we advised appellant that he had 30 days within which to personally submit any contentions or issues that he wished to raise on appeal. No response has been received.

The record reflects that the Los Angeles Police conducted a traffic stop because appellant was driving a BMW with no license plates and tinted windows. Appellant consented to a search of his person and $1,204 and a loaded handgun were found in his front pockets. The officers found two clear plastic bags of alprazolam (183 pills) and a bottle of cough syrup with codeine on the driver's floorboard. One of the passengers in the vehicle was on probation for cocaine. Appellant was carrying a mobile phone that had a text message that read: "I'll give you some bars for free." A drug expert testified that "bars" was street slang for Xanax (alprazolom) and that appellant possessed the pills for sale.

We have reviewed the entire record and are satisfied that appellant's attorney has fully complied with his responsibilities and that no arguable issues exist. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 443; People v. Kelly (2006) 40 Cal.4th 106, 126.)

The judgment is affirmed.
