the Juvenile Court Law.	(Los Angeles County Super. Ct. No. YJ36770)
THE PEOPLE,
Plaintiff and Respondent,
v.
ALLAN B.,
Defendant and Appellant.
	J
APPEAL from an order of the Superi-	or Court of Los Angeles County. Wayne C
Denton, Commissioner. Affirmed.
Stephen Borgo, under appointment by	y the Court of Appeal, for Defendant and Appellant.

No appearance for Plaintiff and Respondent.

Minor Allan B. appeals from the juvenile court's order sustaining a petition pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 602. That order was made following the juvenile court's finding that minor violated Health and Safety Code section 11359 by possessing marijuana for sale. The offense occurred on May 8, 2012, when minor sold his classmate, Juliana B., a small bag of marijuana for $20 on the grounds of their school.

The juvenile court found the allegation true. It declared minor to be a ward of the court and found the offense a felony. The court ordered minor placed home on probation.

We appointed counsel to represent minor on appeal. After examination of the record, counsel filed an opening brief raising no issues and asking this court to independently review the record, including a sealed transcript of an in camera hearing pursuant to Pitchess v. Superior Court (1974) 11 Cal.3d 531 (Pitchess). On July 5, 2013, we advised minor he had 30 days within which to personally submit any contentions or issues he wished us to consider. To date, we have received no response.

We have examined the entire record and are satisfied that minor's attorney has fully complied with his responsibilities and that no arguable issues exist. (People v. Kelly (2006) 40 Cal.4th 106, 109–110; People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 441.) We also examined the sealed reporter's transcript of the in camera Pitchess hearing, at which the custodian of records for the Santa Monica Police Department stated under oath that there were no complaints against the officer in question.
