Raymond S. appeals the denial of his petition for recall of sentence under Proposition 47, the Safe Neighborhoods and Schools Act. While a juvenile, Raymond was declared a ward of the court for the crime of robbery in 2000. He filed a petition for resentencing under Proposition 47 on May 12, 2015. His appellate attorney filed a brief pursuant to People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, on December 4, 2015, requesting we independently review the entire record on appeal for arguable issues. We have done so and are satisfied Raymond's attorney has fulfilled his duty, and no arguable issues exist. (Ibid.; People v. Kelly (2006) 40 Cal.4th 106.)

Proposition 47 reclassified certain drug and theft offenses, which had previously been felonies or "wobblers," as misdemeanors. (In re J.L. (2015) 242 Cal.App.4th 1108, 1112.) Robbery is a serious and violent felony not subject to recall of sentence under Proposition 47. (§§ 211, 667.5, subd. (c)(9), 1170.18, 1192.7, subd. (c)(19); People v. Lynn (2015) 242 Cal.App.4th 594, 599.)
